Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement

This Supplementary Product Disclosure Statement (Supplementary PDS) is dated 30 April 2008 and will apply to policies taken out, or with a renewal effective date, on or after 30 April 2008.

The information in this Supplementary PDS updates and should be read with the last Product Disclosure Statement you received for the policy specified in your policy schedule (PDS) and any other applicable Supplementary PDS.

Changes to your PDS

The Corporations Act 2001 now requires the terms and conditions of an insurance policy (that are not part of the policy schedule) to be in the PDS for that policy. This Supplementary PDS amends your PDS to meet this requirement.

Your PDS booklet contains your policy terms and conditions or policy wording in a separate section or part or under a separate heading. The PDS is amended, and should now be read so that the policy terms and conditions or policy wording, that is included in your PDS booklet, is part of the PDS.

Any statement in your PDS to the effect that the policy terms or conditions, or policy wording, is not part of the PDS, is deleted.

If you have any questions, or would like another copy of the PDS, please contact your business advisor or call us on the contact telephone number on your schedule.

Your policy

What you must tell us when you apply to take out this policy

When applying to take out insurance we will ask you certain questions. When answering these questions, you must be honest, and you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to tell us anything

- ◆ known to you, and
- ◆ which a reasonable person in the circumstances, would include in answer to any question

We will use your answers to help us decide whether to insure you and anyone else under this policy, and on what terms.

Who you are answering the questions for

It is important that you understand you are answering the questions in this way on behalf of yourself and anyone else that you want to be covered by the policy.

If you do not answer our questions in this way

If you do not answer our questions in this way, we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel the policy. If you answer our questions fraudulently, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the policy as never being in place.

Renewal, variation, reinstatement or extension of your policy

When your policy is renewed, varied, reinstated or extended you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to tell us anything that you

- ◆ know, or
- ◆ could reasonably be expected to know is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and on what terms.

Your duty does not require disclosure of anything that

- ◆ diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us
- ◆ is of common knowledge
- ◆ we know or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know, or
- ◆ is a matter that we indicate your duty has been waived by us.

If you do not comply with your duty of disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim, or we may cancel the policy.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

When you are insured

Your insurance begins when we accept your application. The commencement date of your insurance will be shown on the schedule we will send you.

We will not cover your property for a period of 48 hours from the time of the commencement of your insurance for damage or loss caused by:

- ◆ bushfire or grassfire; or
- ◆ a named cyclone.

We will provide cover however if:

- ◆ This insurance commences directly after another insurance policy covering the same property expired without a break in cover.
- ◆ You have entered into a contract of sale to purchase the property.
- ◆ You have entered into a contract to lease the property.

The insurance applies for the period for which you have paid us (or agreed to pay us) the premium. You may pay your premium by cash, cheque or credit card. If your cheque or credit card is dishonoured by your financial institution, you are not insured.

You can also pay your premium by instalments direct from a financial institution account or from your credit card. You cannot make a claim under this policy if you owed us more than one month's premium when the event you want to claim for happened.

If you pay your premium by instalments and you are more than one month behind, we can cancel your policy without notice.

If you have a total loss, we shall deduct the instalments for the remaining period of insurance from the amount we pay you.

Who is insured under this policy

The person whose name is set out in the schedule is insured. In this policy that person is called 'you' or 'your'.

How to make a claim

1. Make sure you have all the information you need to support your claim

We will need

- ◆ contact details of any people involved in the incident, including their name and current residential address and/or vehicle registration and who they are insured with
- ◆ any letters, notices or court documents about the incident within 72 hours of receiving them
- ◆ the incident report number for any claims in relation to theft or attempted theft, vandalism or a malicious act
 - the Police will provide you with this number when you report the incident to them.

2. Contact us or your insurance adviser to make a claim

You need to make your claim as soon as possible – any delays may reduce the amount that we pay, or prevent us from paying a claim.

We will give you immediate advice and assistance with your claim, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

We will ask you a range of questions to help us assess your claim. Remember that a claim made by one person is treated as a claim made by all of the people listed as the insured on your schedule.

We may

- ◆ ask you to provide us with proof of ownership of your property
- ◆ need to inspect your property
- ◆ need quotations from a repairer.

How to resolve a complaint or dispute

1. Talk to us first

If you have a complaint, the first thing you or your insurance adviser should do is speak to one of our staff. If your complaint relates specifically to a claim, speak with the claims officer managing your claim.

If the staff member or claims officer are unable to resolve the matter for you, you or your insurance adviser may speak to a manager. If you are not satisfied with our response you can go to step 2.

2. Seek a review

If the matter is still not resolved the manager will refer you or your insurance adviser to the relevant dispute handling department or area who will conduct a review of your dispute.

If you are still not satisfied with our response to your dispute you can go to step 3.

3. Seek an external review

You are entitled to seek an external review of our decision. We will provide you with information about option(s) available to you, including, if appropriate, referring you to the external dispute resolution scheme administered by the Financial Ombudsman Service Limited (FOS).

Further information about our complaint and dispute resolution procedures is available by contacting us.
