

Foundation

The Dr. Evelyn Scott Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Higher Education Scholarship

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples should be aware that this form contains the stories of people who have passed away.

Application Form

Please read the terms and conditions and scholarship FAQ prior to applying

Full name

Date of birth

Organisation/s and Team/s you have interned with

Date you commenced your internship

Date you completed/due to complete your internship

State where you are based

Email

Phone

Please limit responses to approximately 150 words per question

1. What degree are you studying and what led you to choose this degree?

2. Dr. Scott’s father once gave her the advice, “If you don’t think something is right, then challenge it.” Dr. Evelyn Scott’s family described this as a guiding principle in her life. Dr. Evelyn Scott also valued honesty, hard work, respect, and justice.

Describe a situation where you may have displayed the values of Dr. Scott to support your local community or an example where you may have applied these values in your life.

3. What are your goals and ambitions for the next five years (can be both personal and professional)?

4. The Dr. Evelyn Scott scholarship will be awarded as two payments:

- a. $10,000 (less any tax withholdings as required by law) will be paid to the successful applicant to cover cost of living associated with university study.
- b. An additional $5,000 (less any tax withholdings as required by law) will be paid to assist with university course costs, personal development courses or initiatives that support study outcomes.

Please note that it is the responsibility of the applicant to seek their own independent financial and taxation advice as to how the Scholarship payment may affect their financial position and any government related payments. Please see Scholarship terms and conditions for further information.

Please describe how you may use the additional $5,000 (payment b) to support your study and career goals.

5. Finally, please share with us why you feel you are the best candidate for the Dr Evelyn Scott Scholarship.

6. Please attach the following when you submit this form as supporting documentation:

- A letter of referral from an individual who can comment on your community contributions or how you demonstrate the values of Dr. Evelyn Scott (see question two).
- A letter of referral from your CareerTrackers Intern Manager.
- University transcript 2021.
- Note - you may also submit your CV as a supporting document.

I agree to the Scholarship terms and conditions.

I have read and agree that Bupa Foundation will handle my personal information in accordance with the Privacy Statement set out at clause 8 of the Terms & Conditions.

All applications must be submitted to via email to communityengagement@bupa.com.au by Wednesday 10 November 2021 (11:59pm AEDT).