| Billing Note: With all consultations it is assumed that a certain amount of assessment is conducted. Diagnostic services should therefore rarely be billed in conjunction with a consultation fee unless the service was beyond the scope of consultation conducted. It is expected that if these services are used, that separate clinical notes will be maintained and justification for the service may be requested. |                                                                              |          |          |          |          |          |          |          |          |
